Indigenous Research

In May 2015, SSHRC launched new initiatives to support and promote Indigenous research and talent development.

Indigenous research statement of principles will serve to guide the implementation of SSHRC's current and future activities.

A revised definition of Indigenous research clarifies research “by and with” Indigenous Peoples and emphasizes and values the existing strengths, assets and knowledge systems of Indigenous Peoples and communities.

Guidelines for the Merit Review of Indigenous Research are intended to assist committee members in interpreting SSHRC's specific Challenge, Feasibility and Capability evaluation criteria in the context of Indigenous research.

Frequently Asked Questions

My Connection project is strictly an Outreach Activity – who should I include as a Presenter?

For Connection projects, “Presenters” are not only people who will give a presentation at an event. Presenters are defined by SSHRC as individuals who will make an active contribution to the project’s objectives and/or the production of concrete deliverables (e.g. preparing exhibition materials, producing a podcast). You can think of them as participants.

Frequently Asked Questions

How many Presenters should I include in my application?

Some projects may have hundreds of presenters, and there is no problem with that. However, the list on the application form is limited to 15 presenters to prevent applicants from overloading their application and committee members by listing all presenters. It is recommended that Principal investigators (PIs, known as Applicant or Project director) submit a presenters page for only 15 key presenters at their event or participants in their outreach activity. PIs should include in the list those for whom they are requesting SSHRC's funding. When appropriate, the list should also include students as well as established and emerging scholars. While PIs may provide details on all presenters (including the 15 key presenters listed) and their specific role in the project description or budget justification section, it is important to note that they should avoid overloading their application if not relevant.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are recurrent annual events eligible for Connection Grant support?

Yes, recurrent annual events are eligible for Connection Grant support, but you must demonstrate how the event differs from what was previously funded (e.g. what new knowledge is being mobilized, what new methods are being used).

Frequently Asked Questions

I have been invited to a conference abroad; can I apply for a Connection Grant to support my travel expenses?

No. Connection Grants are not travel grants. They are intended to support applicants and project directors who are running a knowledge mobilization event or activity. Connection funding can support applicants' travel costs and other expenses if they are organizing an event or activity abroad. In this case, the applicant must demonstrate within the application why the event needs to be held outside Canada and its potential to mobilize Canadian research on an international stage.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can students participate as co-applicants?

No. Students can only participate as collaborators. Moreover, if a student is a collaborator on the project team, they cannot be paid a stipend or a wage from the grant.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can my application include bursaries to encourage increased student attendance?

No. Students must have an active role in your Connection project in order to be eligible for support.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I know if something is eligible for SSHRC support?

SSHRC grants are governed by the Tri-Agency Guide on Financial Administration. If you are not sure whether something you are proposing would be eligible, please contact us. Funding opportunity eligibility rules will be considered alongside Tri-Agency Financial Administration rules – meaning that eligible and non-eligible expenses specific to the Connection Grants prevail over eligible and non-eligible expenses outlined in the Guide.

Frequently Asked Questions

I just learned that my Connection Grant proposal was not successful. Can I resubmit for the next competition?

Individuals, as applicants or project directors, can only apply to the Connection Grants funding opportunity once per calendar year.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are registration fees an eligible expense?

No, registration fees are not an eligible expense, nor is it an eligible matching in-kind/cash contribution.
