

Wolfe-Western Fellowship At-Large for Outstanding Newly Recruited Research Scholars

Fellowship Announcement and Guidelines

Western Research, on behalf of the Vice-President (Research) and the Vice-President (University Advancement), is pleased to announce the fifth Wolfe-Western Fellowship At-Large for Outstanding Newly Recruited Research Scholars. The Fellowship provides a unique opportunity to support exceptional scholars new to Western from any discipline. One Fellowship will be awarded on a competitive basis to be held for five years to an Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor in the first or second year of their first Western appointment, who demonstrates outstanding leadership and potential within their area(s) of research. Nominees for the Fellowship will be considered by Dean's recommendation only. Each Faculty is invited to nominate one candidate by submitting a Nomination Dossier directly to Western Research by Thursday, February 15, 2024.

1. OVERVIEW

The Wolfe-Western Fellowship At-Large for Outstanding Newly Recruited Research Scholars will be awarded based on the quality of the Nominee's research and record of accomplishments, as well as the extent to which the Nominee has contributed to research excellence and innovation in their chosen field in Canada and internationally relative to their career stage.

1.1. Allocation and Term

- One (1) Wolfe-Western Fellowship At-Large for Outstanding Newly Recruited Research Scholars will be awarded per competition.
- The Fellowship holder will be selected in accordance with the University's policies and practices (MAPP).
- Appointments to the Fellowship will be for a maximum of five (5) years, and will be subject to an annual review of continued eligibility based on the quality of the incumbent's research program and overall performance.
- The Fellowship is non-renewable and held only once by a faculty member.
- Only one Fellowship will be held per five-year period.
- Funding for the fifth Wolfe-Western Fellowship will commence by April 1, 2024.

1.2. Value

- The successful Fellowship holder will be awarded a total of $75,000 to be used for salaries and benefits of the incumbent, for a maximum five (5) years.

2. ELIGIBILITY

- Nominees must be at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level, and within the first or second year of their first appointment at Western (the appointment start date must be between January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2023).
- The Nominee must allocate at least 75% of their academic time to research or research-related activities. Protected time to be confirmed in the Nomination Dossier by the respective Dean.
- Scholars holding an existing salary award covering more than 50% of their salary (e.g. Canada Research Chairs) are not eligible.
- Each Dean/Faculty may nominate one (1) eligible researcher for the Wolfe-Western Fellowship At-Large for Outstanding Newly Recruited Research Scholars opportunity. Faculties are strongly encouraged to consider Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion principles in their internal selection of candidates.

3. ADJUDICATION

A selection committee, chaired by the Vice President (Research) or designate, will choose the recipient of the Wolfe-Western Fellowship At-Large for Outstanding Newly Recruited Research Scholars from the nominees. The committee composition will be selected from the Western College of Reviewers to ensure that members represent an appropriate balance across broad research and scholarly disciplines. All members must have undertaken the Bias in Peer Review training offered by the CRC/Tri-councils and the Building Inclusivity Through Anti-Racism module by Western's EDI Office prior to adjudication.

4. NOMINATION DOSSIERS: HOW TO NOMINATE

4.1. Due Date and Submission

- Deans may submit one Nomination Dossier per Faculty by email to Western Research (rwprizes@uwo.ca) by 5:00 pm Eastern Time, February 15, 2024.
