SA 3633 Print Media

Welcome to Advanced Print Media! I am so happy to have you back in the Printshop, enrolled in a course that will allow you to take full advantage of the excellent printmaking facilities we have in Visual Arts at Western. In this course outline you will find all the necessary information about SA 3633 including important points concerning health and safety regarding the COVID-19 pandemic, in-class demonstrations, sign-up procedures to be working in Print Shop and the printmaking/ ink fee.

Due to COVID-19 Health and Safety protocols, many aspects of the course will be delivered online on our OWL site so that during class time, the Print Shop can be used to its full capabilities.

Please consult the Syllabus at the end of the Course Outline, for a detailed plan for the year in regards to Demonstration dates, Assignment Due Dates, and your responsibilities for accessing information on OWL.

It will be an unusual academic year, with all of us adjusting to the new realities we are facing during the pandemic. You will note that I have planned for an alternate Syllabus due to the event that all teaching must go online at short notice.

As always, feel free to contact me by email if you have questions outside of class.

Tricia Johnson

Calendar Description

A continuation of the study of print media.

Please Note: You are responsible for ensuring you have successfully completed all course prerequisites (SA 2630A/B or the former VAS 2236a or VAS 2236b) and that you have not taken an anti-requisite course. Lack of prerequisites may not be used as a basis of appeal. If you are not eligible for a course, you may be removed from it at any time, and you will receive no fee adjustment. These decisions cannot be appealed.

Course Objectives

This course offers a continuation of print media allowing students to enhance their printmaking skills while learning more advanced techniques in the areas of intaglio, relief and silkscreen as well as introducing students to the process of lithography. Student driven assignments will be the focus of SA 3633.

Importantly, training and awareness of health and safety issues will be integrated into all studio practices and strictly enforced.

The Anti-Requisite for this course is the former VAS 3330 or SA 3630A/B combined with SA 3632A/B

Course Requirements

- You are responsible for making yourself aware of all assignments, procedures and due dates. It is your complete responsibility to keep informed by referring to the syllabus/timeline in this document and as posted on our OWL site.
- You are expected to complete all assignments on due dates. Failure to complete assignments or present completed work in scheduled critiques without prior consultation with the instructor could result in a failing grade. If you choose to hand in work late, 2% per day will be deducted from the assignment (Monday to Friday, weekend considered one day) and no written feedback will be given to late work. One week after the due date, late work will not be accepted and the student will be given a grade of 0 (zero) for that assignment. The final assignments are due on the last class in April. Assignments not received on the last class will be given a mark of 0 (zero).
- You are expected to clean-up after each work session.
- Students are expected to spend a minimum 4 – 6 hours per week working in the printshop, outside of scheduled class time, towards fulfilling course requirements.
- Students must take detailed notes during the demonstrations throughout the course. Printmaking is a very involved process; it cannot be learned intuitively and it is imperative that you take detailed notes to refer to when you are working. As well, you are shown how to properly use the equipment and materials in the demonstration for your own safety as well as to maintain the equipment in the shop. When you have a technical problem, the instructor and the technician will want to refer to your notes as an aspect of assisting you. Not taking notes during a demonstration will negate your ability to ask the technician and instructor for technical assistance.
- Reckless use of shop equipment as well as disregarding health and safety procedures are grounds for being removed from the class.
- Attendance at demonstrations is mandatory in order for every student to understand the procedures of each print practice.

- To facilitate the demonstrations, there are several videos on our uwo.ca/visarts website under Resources > Student Tutorials. These videos are best understood after seeing Jessica's in-person demonstration. They are a good resource to refresh your understanding of the processes before you begin working. They do not replace good notes however.

Print Shop Access

- The Print shop will be open when Jessica is working and can oversee the shop as well as all health and safety protocols. The shop will be open for considerably less hours than usual, so plan for 4 – 6 hours a week, during business hours, to be in the Print Shop to work towards creating your assignments.
- Print Shop hours will be relayed through an OWL announcement and posted on OWL at the beginning of September.
- Students MUST sign up for scheduled time to work in the shop outside class time.
- You are not allowed to work in the Print Shop during SA 2630A/B. This includes the screen print area. The Screen area will be used as overflow for students in SA 2630A to work at tables.
- Students scheduled to work in the shop must report to Jessica that they are present.

Print Shop Conduct

- Please be respectful of each other in the Print Shop inside and outside of class.
- Share the facilities equitably and also support a productive learning and working environment for everyone through your actions and words.
- Everyone who is registered in the course deserves to work in a respectful environment.
- As well, respect other people's time by using the shop, which includes the materials and presses, efficiently.

Cleaning up your mess after you have worked in the Print Shop

- It is not the Professor or Printmaking Technician's job to clean up after you. That is your responsibility.
- Give yourself a minimum 30 minutes time to clean up properly and thoroughly.
- You expect a clean environment when you begin working – make sure you are upholding that by making a clean environment for everyone working in the Print Shop.

Working on your Assignments by yourself

- It is expected that you create all your assignments with your own hands.
- Your boyfriend/girlfriend, classmate, best friend or any other individual cannot do the technical work for your assignments.
- Having unauthorized assistance to produce technical results that will be marked could be considered a scholastic offense and will result in a failing technical grade (zero = 0).

- If you need assistance technically, you must consult Tricia, your academic advisor and/or your SSD advisor.

Creating Original Imagery for Assignments

- It is expected that you create your printmaking assignments from original imagery that you have designed/created yourself, whether it is a drawing, a photograph or preliminary sketches in your sketchbook.
- There may be circumstances when you need to use Google Images as visual reference for specific subject matter in your printmaking assignments; please consult me and be ready to provide a reference link.
- Using another artist's artwork and presenting it as your own original work is considered plagiarism as outlined in Departmental and University Policies below and has serious consequences.

CAUTION: Lock your print drawer and place anything of importance in your locker. Do not steal each other's art supplies and materials. Stealing is an offense and is grounds for being removed from the university, permanently

ACADEMIC CONSIDERATION:

The University recognizes that a student's ability to meet their academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by extenuating circumstances, including short-term illness or injury. Reasonable academic consideration is a cooperative process between the University, the student, and academic staff. All participants in the process must act in good faith, and fulfil their respective obligations, if it is to succeed.

Students who experience an extenuating circumstance (illness, injury, or other extenuating circumstance) sufficiently significant as to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements, may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

- (i) Submitting a Self-Reported Absence form, provided that the conditions for submission are met;*
- (ii) For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner, in order to be eligible for Academic Consideration; or*
- (iii) For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to Academic Counselling in their Faculty of registration, in order to be eligible for academic consideration.*

Students seeking academic consideration:

- Are advised to consider carefully the implications of postponing tests or midterm exams or delaying handing in work;

- Are encouraged to make appropriate decisions, based on their specific circumstances, recognizing that minor ailments (e.g., upset stomach) or upsets (e.g., argument with a friend) are not normally an appropriate basis for a self-reported absence;
- Must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by either the self-reported absence or SMC, or immediately upon their return following a documented absence;
- Are advised that all necessary documentation, forms, etc. are to be submitted to academic counselling within two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities

Students who experience an unexpected illness or injury or an extenuating circumstance (48 hours or less) that is sufficiently severe as to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements (e.g., attending lectures or labs, writing tests or midterm exams, completing and submitting assignments, participating in presentations) should self-declare using the online Self-Reported Absence portal. This option should be used in situations where the student expects to resume academic responsibilities within 48 hours or less. The following conditions are in place for self-reporting of medical or extenuating circumstances:

- Students will be allowed a maximum of two self-reported absences between September and April, and one self-reported absence between May and August;*
- The duration of the excused absence will be for a maximum of 48 hours from the time the Self-Reported Absence form is completed through the online portal, or from 8:30am the following morning if the form is submitted after 4:30pm;*
- The duration of the excused absence will terminate prior to the end of the 48 hour period, should the student undertake significant academic responsibilities (e.g., write a test, submit a paper) during that time;*
- The duration of an excused absence will terminate at 8:30am on the day following the last day of classes each semester, regardless of how many days of absence have elapsed;*
- Self-reported absences will not be allowed for scheduled final examinations; for midterm examinations scheduled during the December examination period; or for final lab examinations*
- Self-reporting may not be used for assessments (e.g., midterm exams, tests, reports, presentations, or essays) worth more than 30% of any given course;*
- Students must be in touch with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the Self-Reported Absence form, to clarify how they will be expected to fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed*

Please contact Professor Tricia Johnson after she has approved your academic considerations in order to receive the new due date. Generally, new due dates will not exceed 1 week after the assigned due date in the Syllabus: Timeline.

Outstanding assignments with academic consideration, not received on the Final Day of University Classes for the Academic Year, as listed in the Academic Calendar, will be given a mark of 0 (zero).

PLAGARISM:

Plagiarism, which may be defined as “The act or an instance of copying or stealing another’s words or ideas and attributing them as one’s own,” will not be tolerated. (Citation excerpted from Black’s Law Dictionary, 1999, 7th ed., p. 1170). This includes presenting the visual or aural work of another creator as your own. Visual or Aural Plagiarism may involve both hand-based media such as drawing, painting, printmaking and sculpture, as well as digital media such as photography, video and sound. It includes work subsequently manipulated or transferred between different media, as well as self-plagiarism – work submitted for assignments previously produced and graded for another course. Similar to textual plagiarism, all student work involving the visual or aural work of others must be appropriately cited/identified whether in print or orally. Failure to do so will lead to similar academic penalties as those identified in Western’s Academic Calendar.

Student Conduct:

All students will conduct themselves in a manner that will be consistent with the maturity and academic integrity expected of university students. Student conduct shall be consistent with the general laws of the community and with University regulations. Students shall show regard and respect for the rights, safety, and property of all members of the University community and are expected to act in a responsible manner within the University and the community at large.

Removal:

Western University reserves the right to dispose of artwork not picked up by April 15th of each year.
